2010 TINTON FALLS JUNIOR POLICE ACADEMY

WHEN: JULY 26TH – AUGUST 13TH 2010 between 8:30am and 3:30pm Monday- Friday
You must commit to all three weeks. No allowances will be made for other obligations. If you are planning to tryout for fall sports at Monmouth Regional High School, we will speak with your coaches on your behalf to get you excused while you are with us.

WHERE: The Ranney School is our gracious host and will provide us with lunch on our non-traveling days. As an added bonus, they will give us an hour of free swim time in the pool between 3:30pm and 4:30pm for all of those who are interested on designated days.

PLANNED EVENTS: Each year we travel across the great State of New Jersey visiting some very exciting locations. In the past we have attended the New Jersey State Police Museum in Trenton, Middletown Pistol Range, Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island and we conduct a ROPES confidence course at Monmouth Regional High School. In addition, we attend a minor league baseball game, Great Adventure Day and two days of Water Safety Training. In the past, we have also given K-9 demonstrations, traffic safety demonstrations and forensics classes. Of course, each day will begin with team building skills and conclude with some fantastic mind and body conditioning

UNIFORMS: The Tinton Falls Police Department will provide you with your uniform at no cost, as well as a uniform for your daily organized physical training. You must provide, black shoes or black sneaker (no other color may be on the sneaker), white under shirt, black socks, white socks, fitness shoes and a positive mental attitude everyday. Optional items, which could make your experience more enjoyable, consist of a padded exercise mat and a jump rope

WHO IS ELIGIBLE: The program is open to all Borough residents who have completed the 7th grade by June of 2010 through those who have completed 10th grade through June 2010. You may apply if you are not a Borough resident, provided you attend a public school in Tinton Falls.
