County Clerk Hanlon Announces Mail-in Ballots Are Available for the 2024 Primary Election

FREEHOLD, NJ – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon is advising voters that mail-in ballots for the 2024 Democratic and Republican Primary Elections are now available.

“Completing a mail-in ballot is a safe, secure and convenient way to vote, and voters have several options for returning their completed mail-in ballots,” said Clerk Hanlon.

To vote by mail, eligible voters must first fill out an “Application for Vote by Mail Ballot” which can be downloaded from MonmouthCountyVotes.com or the Monmouth County Votes mobile app. This application can also be obtained in person by visiting the County Clerk’s Election Office or from the Municipal Clerk of a resident’s town.

The County Clerk’s Office must receive the completed application form by mail no later than May 28, 2024, at least seven days before the June 4th Primary Election Day. Voters who submit the form in person at the County Clerk’s Election Office can do so up until June 3rd at 3 p.m., the day before the election.

Simple instructions for completing and returning a mail-in ballot are included in the ballot package. Voters may submit completed mail-ballots to the County Board of Elections for counting either by mail, in-person at the County Clerk’s Election Office (at 300 Halls Mill Road, Freehold) or at one of the County’s ballot drop box locations. A list of drop box locations can be found online at MonmouthCountyVotes.com or on our Monmouth County Votes mobile app.

Voters can also track the status of a mail-in ballot by signing up for the Monmouth County “BallotTrax” system, which provides online ballot tracking and offers enhanced features of status notifications to voters via voice, email or text message. Voters can sign up for BallotTrax online at <http://monmouthcountyballottrax.com/>.

Questions about voting or the elections process can be directed to Jesse Estlow of the Monmouth County Clerk’s Elections Division at 732-431-7790, ext. 7794, or by email at Jesse.Estlow@co.monmouth.nj.us.
