County Clerk Hanlon Advises of Approaching Deadline for Candidate Petitions

Deadline for Primary Election candidate petitions is March 25th at 4 p.m.

FREEHOLD, NJ – Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon is advising candidates that the petition filing deadline for the 2024 Primary Election is only weeks away. The deadline for candidates to file their nominating petitions for the 2024 Primary Election is March 25 at 4 p.m.

Petitions are filed at the level of government for the office being sought as follows:

- County office petitions are filed with the County Clerk of Elections Office at 300 Halls Mill Road, Freehold. For more information, call 732-431-7790.
- Municipal-level office petitions and county committee positions are filed with the clerk of the municipality.
- Federal office petitions are filed with the New Jersey Secretary of State. (See <https://nj.gov/state/elections/candidate-information.shtml> for details.)

Signature requirements vary, so contact the respective office for specific information. Visit the Petitions page on the County Clerk's Elections website for more information at <https://www.monmouthcountyvotes.com/candidates/petitions-for-candidacy/>.
